

Karen Albert
CEO/Publisher

“Albert & Company International has done an excellent job designing and developing our University Education Programs Guide. Our managers and HR staff around the world find it highly valuable when identifying and selecting the appropriate programs. The Guide is key to our operations and Albert & Company International has consistently met our quality standards, helped us reduce costs, and has provided quick responses.”

— June Delano

“We have been working with many top consulting firms, and I would rate ACI among the very best. Not only are they outstanding and creative strategists, but they also have the ability to influence and impact the corporate environment as well as academia. Their innovative ROI approach was universally applauded.”

— Ann Young
